Reports submitted to the Anonymous & Confidential Reporting Hotline will be forwarded to Audit & Advisory Services for review. The reporter should provide detailed information about their concern so the matter can be properly reviewed. Audit & Advisory Services will consult and forward the report to the appropriate University personnel based on the nature of the report. Reports will be investigated promptly and discreetly.

If you file a report through EthicsPoint, you are encouraged to return to the website or call back after five business days. The University may have information for you regarding your report or may request additional information that is necessary to complete an initial review.

If you have questions about the Anonymous & Confidential Reporting Hotline, please contact Audit & Advisory Services at 617-373-4041.
